

Empowering Scholars

with MDPI
Author Training

MDPI is a publisher of fully peer-reviewed, open access journals with a focus on robust and rapid editorial processes.

As a pioneer in scholarly open access publishing, MDPI has supported academic communities since 1996. Based in Basel, Switzerland, MDPI aims to foster open scientific exchange in all forms, across all disciplines.

Our 400+ diverse journals are supported by more than 295,000+ academic experts who share our mission, values, and commitment to providing high-quality services for our authors. We serve scholars from around the world to ensure that the latest research is freely available. In line with our mission, all MDPI content is distributed under a Creative Commons Attribution License (CC BY).

MDPI in Romania

With established offices in the major Romanian cities of Cluj and Bucharest, MDPI provides the local academic and research community with the benefits of its extensive experience in publishing a wide range of journals in different disciplines. Through its involvement in Romania, MDPI not only supports scholarly communication but also makes a significant contribution to the local economy. MDPI's commitment to transparency, fairness and accessibility in publishing ensures that research is freely available to all, thereby enhancing the visibility and impact of Romanian research on the global level.

About the Author Training Project

Dive into the world of research with MDPI's author training project. Designed specifically for PhD students, junior researchers, and scholars, it aims to demystify open access publishing and help authors develop strong academic writing skills. Why participate?

For institutions

The author training project helps to foster communication between authors and editors through training modules that are accessible both offline and online. Participants will benefit from a continuous stream of the latest academic updates and support directly from MDPI, enhancing their research journey.

For Scholars

MDPI's team of professionals will provide expert presentations to enhance your publishing expertise and connect directly with our editorial team. Participants can benefit from potential discounts on APCs through IOAP collaboration.

Professional team

Our dedicated team of senior editors and publishing specialists will guide you every step of the way, ensuring a personalized learning experience.

Topics Proposed

Academic Article-Writing Techniques

Learn how to structure your research article, from the abstract and introduction to the discussion and conclusion. Gain insights into how to create clear, concise, and impactful narratives that comply with academic standards and audience expectations.

Benefits of the Open Access Publishing Model

Discover the transformative power of open access (OA) publishing through the perspective of MDPI. This presentation explains how OA models facilitate wider dissemination, greater visibility, and higher citation rates for your research.

Publication Ethics

The workshop is designed for authors seeking to understand the principles of publication ethics. It addresses key topics such as plagiarism, authorship criteria, data falsification, and conflicts of interest. Participants will gain insights on avoiding unethical practices and maintaining the integrity of scientific research, ensuring transparency and accountability in their scholarly publications.

Overview of MDPI's History, Including Our Journals and Services

Journey through MDPI's evolution from its beginnings to today's leadership in academic publishing. This session provides a broad view of our vast journal portfolio across multiple disciplines and underlines our commitment to support scientific communities through our services, initiatives, and innovations.

MDPI Peer Review Guidelines

Peer review is the basis of scholarly publishing quality. This presentation explains MDPI's peer review process and offers a step-by-step guide on how manuscripts are evaluated, the criteria used by reviewers, and tips for responding to reviewers' comments. Learn how to make your manuscript stand out and how to navigate the review process.

We are open to including other topics that are relevant to your institution.

MDPI Values

To support our growth, we are focusing on grounding ourselves in a distinct company culture and identity. Our culture is characterized by four common values. We call these our “enablers”.

Ambition

We set ambitious goals, aiming to drive the change towards a fully open access publishing environment.

Integrity

We foster a work environment in which employees are dedicated to serving the scientific community in a reliable and transparent way.

Innovation

We embrace new ways of thinking and partner with scholars and institutions to pioneer change in academic publishing.

People

The strength of our company is in our people and in the contribution every single individual makes to our shared success. We care about and invest in people’s professional development to provide the best service to our customers.
